

Set Your Clock to Grace

1. Share an example of when someone offered you grace related to time at work?

2. How can you offer grace to someone at work like you received?

3. What stops you from being gracious with yourself around time issues at work?

4. What stops you from offering grace about time to others?

5. Reflect on your experience when someone extended grace to you regarding time at work. What impact did that grace have on you?
